

TRAINING OPPORTUNITY
WSATI Southern Nevada Chapter
Thursday, May 24, 2018

Greetings All ~

The Western States Auto Theft Investigators Southern Nevada Chapter is excited to present our next training class!

On Thursday, May 24th Detective Kraig Palmer will instruct a 4 Hour Vehicle Hacking Class in the morning and a 4 Hour Street Gangs & Auto Fraud Class in the afternoon. We welcome you to sign up for one class or both classes at a reduced rate. Detective Palmer has over eight years of California law enforcement experience and was appointed to a regional auto theft task force in Orange County, CA. While working auto theft in Orange County, he received several awards for his investigative work. In May of 2015, he was selected for a regional auto theft task force in San Diego, CA. While in San Diego, he worked in an undercover capacity, including a year long store front operation targeting auto theft, narcotics and weapons trafficking. He was also the case agent on a three year long international organized criminal enterprise investigation. While working the investigation, he received his cross designation with the Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI) Organized Crime Squad. Through the years, Detective Palmer has provided advanced law enforcement training to over 5000 Federal, State and Local law enforcement officers. He also routinely provides fraud and theft prevention training for private industry throughout the United States. He is a California Police Officer's Standards and Training Level Three Instructor. He travels throughout the United States providing training in the areas of fraud, auto theft, undercover operations, gang trends, and international criminal organizations.

Each Session is $40.00 or sign up for both and the cost of the All Day Training is $65.00. Training is FREE to Current WSATI So NV Chapter Members (You must still register for the class)
